Hi, we’re Jeremiah and Chantal! Thank you so much for taking the time to learn about us. We are so excited to be adopting and bringing a child into our family. We hope that you will be able to see how much love we share with each other and how much love we can share with your child. We count it a privilege to be considered by you. We hope you enjoy learning a little about our lives, who we are and the type of parents we could be to your child. We want you to know that we pray for you and your baby daily. We pray for your protection and that you feel so loved and valuable! We also want you to know that we respect you and your decision to create an adoption plan for your child. We promise to be the best parents that we can be to your precious child! We view children as such a blessing and we promise to always, always make sure your child feels loved, valuable and treasured as a part of our family. We can assure you that your child will be surrounded by people who absolutely adore them everyday. We hope to keep you updated as your child grows up and experiences life. Our intention as we raise your child is to always make sure they know the deep love you have for them and that you want the best for them. We intend to talk openly with them throughout their entire life about the loving choice you made by giving them to us and allowing us to start our family.
About us

HOW WE MET

We’ve gone to the same church for a big chunk of our lives but we didn’t actually know each other until the summer of 2018. Some friends of ours did a little match making to get us together and we’re so glad they did! We started off a little awkward but quickly moved into being each other’s best friends. Jeremiah’s brothers would tease him that they’d never seen him so smitten. We got engaged on a cold October night in 2019 and no time was wasted after that. We got married on Leap Day of 2020. Life since then has been full of mountain top experiences and some of the lowest valleys either of us have ever walked through. We’ve experienced joy as we’ve begun new adventures together as a married couple but had our hearts absolutely shattered by the pain of infertility. Our deepest desire is to have children and raise a family who loves Jesus and loves each other and we are so excited to begin our family by bringing a beautiful child into our home through adoption!
Meet Jeremiah

Jeremiah is someone you’d go to if you needed a good belly laugh. He’s also someone that you would go to if you needed wise advice. He’s really just the whole package. He’s one of those people that is just loved by everyone that he meets. I’ve never heard anyone say a bad thing about him and I really don’t know what bad thing you would say about him. You can see how sweet and caring he is whenever he gets on the floor with our nieces and nephew to play with them or when he sits down to snuggle and read a book to them. You can see how hilarious he is whenever he walks around the house singing a random song or saying a random movie quote which makes me laugh until I cry. You can see how kind and gentle he is by the way he does little, thoughtful things for me that make me feel so loved. He is a humble leader who makes everyone around him feel loved. Jeremiah is innovative and creative and he can come up with a solution to every problem — he reminds me of a modern day MacGyver. I don’t know how I got so blessed to have him as my husband but I’m so glad God gave him to me. I cannot wait to see him become a dad — he will be the best one for sure!
Meet Chantal

To know Chantal is like getting a fresh breath of life. Walking into the house after a long day and seeing her smile makes life sweet. Her smile is contagious! The way her face lights up and the big dimples around her mouth appear, can take your worst day and make it great! Never have I met someone that genuinely cares for everyone regardless of who they are, like Chantal does. She is so open minded, funny, confident, and kind. You can witness this by the way she interacts with the people around her, especially her first and second grade students. Chantal loves plants! Our house is like a botanical garden from all of the plants she has collected over the past almost 3 years of our marriage. She loves to work in our small garden that we have in our back yard. She also loves to cook and bake, and she is great at it! Being able to come home from work and sitting around a table with her and eating her masterpieces is probably one of the best things of life. In summary, Chantal is an absolute joy to be around. The way she makes me and everyone else she’s around feel special and important is what I believe makes her an amazing spouse and friend. It’s also what will make her an amazing mom one day.
Meet our families

Chantal’s Family

We both grew up in the best families who loved and supported us no matter what. We are definitely blessed BIG time in the family department and we are so excited to welcome a child into our amazing families. Neither of us have giant immediate families and we feel like that’s why both of our families are so close knit. Our childhoods, and now adulthoods, are filled with the sweetest memories of being around the people we love the most. We live within 25 minutes of both of our families and talk to them daily. Our weeks are filled with family nights where we have dinner and then hang out with everyone for a few hours. Those nights are full of the best laughs, food, and memories! Seeing everyone’s reactions when we told them about our adoption was the best thing ever — they were so excited! We could not have felt more loved and supported with how everyone responded and we know a child will be so blessed to grow up surrounded by so much love!

Jeremiah’s immediate family is made up of his parents—who have been married for 31 years—his 2 younger brothers and 1 younger sister. All of his siblings are happily married and all have children of their own now. The last 3 years have been full with the births of our 3 nieces and 1 nephew. We love our roles as uncle Jeremiah and aunt Chantal but can’t wait to add a child into the cousin clan! Growing up in Jeremiah’s family was an absolute blast and filled with so many great memories. Jeremiah’s parents are the kindest people who absolutely love their grandkids and can’t wait to extend that love to more!
Chantal’s immediate family is made up of her parents, 1 younger brother (who is now married to the sweetest woman), 1 younger sister and a little fur baby — Watson. Her parents have been married for 25 years and modeled a great marriage for her. Chantal grew up singing and traveling with her family as they went to different states to sing in prisons. She and her family lead worship at their church now. Growing up in Chantal’s family was filled with so many laughs and the best times together. Chantal’s parents are absolutely overjoyed to be first time grandparents! Chantal also has to calm her sister down everytime she goes to a store because if she didn’t, her sister would buy every item of baby clothing on the racks.
Our home is situated on about 50 acres — 2 acres of that being a big yard around our house and the rest being woods and farm land which Jeremiah and his family own. We live in a very rural area and we love it! The few neighbors we have are the kindest people around who are willing to help with anything we need. We love being able to sit on our front porch and enjoy the peaceful sounds of birds singing and wind rushing through the trees. In the back yard you can find chickens roaming around pecking at bugs in the grass. There’s a patio where we love to have friends over to sit and drink coffee around a fire. You can also find a garden where we plant vegetables in the spring and harvest them in the summer. You can see our personal touches coming through on the inside when you see all of Chantal’s green plants bringing bursts of color against the ivory colored walls. You can catch Jeremiah’s love for coffee when you smell espresso brewing at his coffee bar in the dining room. We have loved making our house a home and we cannot wait to raise children in it so we can see the personalities they bring to our home!
Hobbies & Interests

It may sound corny or cliché but the thing we love to do the most is just be together. Whether that means we’re cooking a meal together, working on some kind of house project or out on a date, it doesn’t matter. We just love each other’s company! If we had to pick a favorite thing to do together though, it would probably be traveling to a new place and experiencing all that place has to offer. We can’t wait to add a little one to those adventures! Jeremiah is a man of many talents and skills! He enjoys building things and he has built our dining room table and coffee bar — both of which are absolutely gorgeous. He also comes from a family of farmers so in the spring and fall you can find him driving a tractor or combine in a corn field somewhere. Jeremiah can’t wait to teach a child how to build a table or drive a tractor. Chantal loves all things plant related. You can easily see that’s true when you walk in our house and are greeted by the 52 plants we have. Cooking is a passion of hers and she loves to try new recipes. She is also on the worship team at our church where she plays guitar and sings. Her biggest dream is to have a little one she can sing lullabies to every night before bed.
In the beginning of 2022 we bought a turkey farm! It has always been a dream of Jeremiah’s to have a turkey farm and this place kind of fell in our laps so we went for it. We have about 20,000 turkeys at a time. We get them when they are only 5 weeks old and they leave our farm when they’re around 20 weeks old. We love caring for them and watching them grow up into big strong birds. Jeremiah dreams of a day where he will be able to teach a child how to love and care for animals.
Jeremiah wears many hats. He makes cabinet doors and works at our turkey farm for his main jobs but during the spring and fall, you can find him doing what he really loves to do—farming with his dad and brothers. Chantal is in her 5th year of teaching 1st and 2nd graders. She teaches at the same Christian school she went to her whole life and she loves it. Interacting with the kiddos and helping them learn new things is her favorite part. She absolutely loves her job but she can’t wait to be a stay at home mom!
Our hope as parents

Since we were young we’ve dreamed of getting married and starting a family. We can see that the Lord’s plan for us right now is adoption and we’re so excited for that! We cannot wait to welcome a baby into our home and raise them up to be strong, kind-hearted people. Our hope as we raise children is to always make them feel loved, supported, seen and heard. We want them to never be afraid to come to us with anything they’re going through. We would love for them to be well educated but most importantly we want them to be levelheaded and wise. We intend to raise them to know Jesus and love Him with all their hearts. Our prayer for them already is that they would grow to have a close relationship with Him and let that love bubble over into the people around them. We hope to model a Godly marriage to them and teach them to treat everyone around them with the utmost respect. There’s no doubt they’ll be taught to be goofy and lighthearted. One of the things we look forward to the most is just being silly with them — to see them smile and hear them laugh. We already dream of the bedtime snuggles, the good morning kisses and dinner time conversations. We just really cannot wait to love on a child! We wish we’d be able to promise that we will do all of those things we mentioned above perfectly but we really can’t. We can’t promise them because we’re human and we fail. We can’t promise a perfect life for your child but we can promise you that we will do our absolute best to love them and raise them to know how valuable and treasured they are!
